

MOTOROLA MPx – Live Realtime

They say never to mix business with pleasure, but the Motorola MPx can't help it and neither can you. As the perfect convergence device, the powerful Motorola MPx allows you to live wirelessly with all the business and entertainment tools you need in a never seen before form factor. Optimized for multiple uses, the Motorola MPx allows you to live in real time via an ultimate e-mail experience, access to thousands of applications available for the Windows Mobile™ software and seamless connectivity thanks to integrated Bluetooth® Wireless Technology, Wi-Fi and GPRS technologies. And for the extra “wow” factor, the Motorola MPx comes complete with an embedded camera and large dual-hinge landscape and portrait color display. Could you ask for more?
