The Motorola MPx200 combines the wireless convenience of a mobile phone with the power of a personal computer.

MPx200 BENEFITS

- Simplify. The Motorola MPx200 is the always active, on the go, Mobile experience! Synchronize with your Windows centric world to help stay in control and simplify your life.
- Speakerphone. The Motorola MPx200 has an integrated handsfree speakerphone for convenient conference calling whenever, wherever.
- Windows Media Player. You can listen to your favorite MP3 music files. Download files onto your PC desktop and transfer them straight to your phone, or an optional SD memory card. You can also download directly onto your phone using the internet.
- Personal Information Management. You can keep track and organize your calendar, address book, e-mail and tasks right from your mobile phone.
- Synchronization. Microsoft® Activesync® can synchronize the information on an MPx200 by connecting to your PC or server via a mini USB connection.
- The World Wide Web. Pocket Internet Explorer enables you to browse Web content, including intranet sites and streaming video or music files. You can surf, shop or even trade on virtually any site.
- Ring Tones. Enjoy 32 pre-set MP3 ring tones, 5 VibraCall vibrating alerts, plus 1 silent and 32 customizable/downloadable alerts. You can download and install musical tones via the Internet by using the download application software. You can even assign ring tones for entries in your Phone Book.
- Two Line External Display. Identify the caller, view battery and signal strength status, or view text messages without opening the phone.
- Personalization. Personalize your phone with color pallets, screen savers, wall papers, reorder the main menu to reflect your usage pattern, or organize the home screen by changing to a list-based menu. Tag your phonebook entries with ring tones.
- Voice Recorder. When a pen and paper are not available, or if you don't have a free hand, just leave yourself a voice memo. The voice recorder allows you to record one minute of personal voice messages, like directions or a phone number.
