

MOTOROLA V560

The Motorola V560 is one smart mobile. Capable of transferring calls from your mobile to your home service when you walk in the door, this innovative flip phone creates a truly seamless link between land and wireless lines and brings supreme coverage and cost savings. And, you'll receive just one bill for your landline, broadband and wireless services – communications convenience at its best. The powerful Motorola V560 keeps the benefits coming with global capabilities, entertainment options and hi-tech functionality, promising that you'll stay connected and constructive at work, home and play.

Connections

Experience the next phase in wireless freedom. Moving with you from work to car to home, the Motorola V560 automatically transfers your service to your home or office phone lines. Maintaining conversations with crisp, clarity is possible – no matter where you are.

Work it Good

The Motorola V560 makes it easy to remain productive, even while on-the-go. With a hands-free speaker and Bluetooth® wireless technology, it is easier than ever to talk to the people or the devices that are important to you. Stay in touch with family with speed by sending a quick Instant Message (IM) or know when your boss is calling thanks to photo caller ID. Plus, with quad-band connectivity, this compact flip phone is ready to keep you company anywhere around the globe.

Look at Me

Flip open the Motorola V560 and a vivid color screen is revealed – perfect for viewing still and moving images that you conveniently capture using the mobile's integrated digital camera or video capabilities. Then, share your vision with others via Multimedia Messaging Service (MMS) to send favorite multimedia files, animations, music and more. With the Motorola V560, keeping in touch has never been so fun.
