

Motorola V810

Fashion-savvy and tech-conscious consumers searching for a handset that combines sleek good looks with the latest technology can sit back and relax thanks to the new Motorola V810. This stylish compact mobile phone will catch everyone's eye as you answer an incoming call that rings to the tune of your favorite song, take a picture using its integrated camera with built-in flash, play a game on the color screen capable of supporting up to 260,000 colors, or send text messages with animated icons and photos. With a range of communication and entertainment features to complement its sleek look, the Motorola V810 is an ideal handset companion for stylish tech-lovers.

- Picture Perfect

Who has time to drop off film at the store – not you! So, be sure to record each and every important experience with ease, just snap a shot whenever the mood strikes thanks to the integrated camera with flash on your handy Motorola V810. Memories are priceless and with your new little mobile phone and camera combo, you'll never forget one moment of fun.

- Share the Love

After taking a picture with your phone's integrated camera, be sure to share all of your memorable moments by sending photos via Multi Messaging Service (MMS) to MMS compatible phones or PCs. Or, if you're feeling creative, just turn your favorite photo into a screensaver and view on the phone's large and vivid display.

- External Good Looks

With an elegant and sophisticated design, the new Motorola V810 is sure to please all fashion-divas looking for a new way to stand out in the crowd. This mobile is the ideal accessory for style-mavens who love to party all night and chat all day!

- I See You

With an external picture caller ID* you'll know who's on the line without saying a word. Choose to answer or divert the call with one quick glance! You now have the power to say when and where you want to chat.

- You've Got the Power

Using BREW and CDMA 1x technology, you can easily and quickly download* new games, screensavers, wallpaper, ring tunes and business applications to your Motorola V810 and create a mobile phone that suits your specific needs. And, thanks to the screen's ability to support up to 260,000 colors and the phone's polyphonic speaker technology with 40 musical ring tunes, downloads will look and sound crystal clear.

The Motorola V810 is expected to be available in Q2 2004. For more information regarding product availability in your region, please check with your local Motorola representative.
