

MOTO A810

Finally, a full-featured, touch screen mobile device at an affordable price! A810 makes it easy to connect with friends or family and share important moments. An easy to use touch screen interface with access to e-mail and Internet, make it simple to manage your busy professional life, while an integrated MP3 player, FM radio and video recording/playback capabilities help stimulate your senses during downtime.

Talk with Your Hands

With a large touch screen display and Motorola's advanced handwriting recognition, it's easy to communicate – whether you are sending or receiving SMS or e-mail. Text entry is as easy as using the stylus to write directly on the 2.2" interactive screen.

For even more visual communications, shoot, snap and share pictures or video with the built in 2 megapixel camera and video recording and playback functionality. Share photos and videos instantly via MMS or e-mail, or with up to 2 GB of removable memory, there is plenty of room to store photos and video to show off to friends later.

A Stylish Touch Screen for All Budgets

Be the envy of your friends with the sleek and chic A810. The A810 provides the functionality and features you desire at a price you can afford. The touch screen display and user-friendly interface allow for quick text entry and easy navigation. A810 is feature rich and fully loaded, including easy pairing with Bluetooth® enabled accessories¹.
