

MOTOROLA C975

3G fanatics look out! The Motorola C975 has arrived merging the latest multi-media technology including: 1.9 inch color display, VGA camera with 4x zoom, video streaming, capture, download and playback. Cutting-edge 3G technology and global roaming ensure that you keep in touch and in style. Designed with both extreme speed and affordability, this sleek silver candybar mobile comes standard with 2-way video calling abilities, high quality audio to pump up MP3 musical ringtones and an external memory card to make sure that photos, video clips and games can be saved and retrieved without tipping storage limits. A built-in speakerphone, quick and easy syncing capabilities and advanced messaging put the icing on this powerful, little wonder. Catch it when you can.

3G Fun for Everyone

Rapid information seekers will be delighted at the broadband-like speeds that enable them to take advantage of the latest and greatest in mobile applications, from downloading to sharing multi-media files. Coupled with WCDMA, tri-band GSM/GPRS coverage, the Motorola C975 makes for one perfect travel companion that will keep you informed and engaged where ever your travels may take you.

2-Way Video Call

A large, crisp display and a built-in, high quality speakerphone make the Motorola C975 the perfect mobile for 2-way video calling. Now it's possible to see and hear who is on the other end of the conversation – ensuring that you can always connect a name with a face.

Multi-media Madness

When you combine an integrated MP3 player, a VGA camera, advanced messaging capabilities and video streaming, capture, download and playback options; you end up with a powerful tool that you can use to capture and share your mobile life with friends and family. Additionally, your compact mobile offers digital imaging enhancements for tweaking photos and video files as you please.

Fits in the Pocket & the Budget

While the Motorola C975 boasts many powerful features, from the latest in multi-media to rapid downloading to syncing and voice recognition, its capabilities don't bulk up the size or the price of this affordable mobile. An economical price tag and rich array of services make this an ideal mobile for on-the-go addicts.

SUMMARY OF FEATURES:

- Global roaming via support of WCDMA and tri-band GSM/GPRS
- 3G technology for broadband-like speed
- 2-way video calling to connect with another capable handset or with a PC using an e-mail address
- Audio and video streaming, capture, download and playback to access the most up to date news, sports highlights, and video clips from your favorite musical artist
- VGA camera with 4x zoom, CIF camera for video call – both with digital imaging enhancements
- 2MB built-in memory; compatible with the removable TransFlash external memory card
- Supports MPEG4, WMV, WMA, MP3, AAC, MIDI and XMF multi-media files
- Multi-media Messaging Service (MMS) to share photos and videos with ease
- E-mail (POP3, IMAP4, SMTP) access and Instant Messaging with presence
- Enhanced WAP 2.0 Internet and Java™ MIDP 2.0 for downloading games, musical ringtones, graphics and more
- Easy synchronization via over-the-air or cable connections to a PC
- 16mm polyphonic speaker (24 voice polyphony, 16 channels)
- Built-in speakerphone and voice recognition feature

The Motorola C975 is expected to be available in Q4 2004. For more information regarding pricing and product availability in your region, please check with your local Motorola representative.