

Motorola V.series™ V120c

Funky. Functional. Fun.

Motorola's new V.series 120c is for individuals youthful in attitude, not necessarily in age. Talk in affordable style that you create yourself. This phone is rich in features but not in price. The V.series 120c offers voice recognition, two-way text messaging, interchangeable Motorola PhoneWrap™ covers, and more. With all of these features and a complete line of accessories, including FM stereo radio headset, travel charger and data connectivity kits, you will be the envy of all of your friends.

- Connect with Comfort
The V.series 120c's sleek design is not only aesthetically pleasing, but also the key to comfortable communication. You will appreciate the fluid contouring to the shape of your face during those endless discussions.
- Call Me...
The voice dialing feature allows the user to recall pre-programmed voice numbers simply by pressing the voice recognition key and speaking the desired voice command. The feature also allows a user to activate user-defined shortcuts by pressing the VR button and speaking the command linked to the feature of his choice.
- Two is Better Than One
The phone's SMS* (short messaging service) feature allows you to talk without talking. Now you can send and receive text messages from other mobile phones or email addresses, making it easy to stay in the loop
- Easy Access to Information
A bright idea in more ways than one, having an online connection* and wireless phone combined can provide constant access to the information you need. The WAP 1.1 microbrowser can put the Internet in the palm of your hand...with the latest news, movie times and sports scores just a push of a button*.
- Personalize in a Pinch
A variety of interchangeable PhoneWrap covers are offered in an assortment of colors ranging from Shaved Ice to Racing Red. Customize and personalize your phone based on your needs. Keep the phone, but create a new look every time your mood desires.
